Must I have Omaha or Nebraska ancestors?

•No, anyone can join! We have members with ancestors from all regions of the U.S. and foreign countries

What else does GOGS do?

- We volunteer at the Omaha Public Library, providing assistance to researchers and hold work groups to assist researchers
- We answer research requests
- We index births, deaths, marriages, obituaries and other items from Omaha newspapers and post the indexes online
- We publish records (e.g, marriages, cemeteries) into books
- We donate annually to the Omaha Public Library's Genealogy Dept and its reference and microfilm rooms

SCHEDULE

8:30AM to 9:00 AM - Registration

9:00 AM to 9:15 AM - Announcements

9:15 AM to 10:15 AM - Finding Your Family in Canada - Discover how to find records in Canada for your ancestors who came from there, or travelled to the U.S. and/or other countries through Canada.

10:45 AM to 11:45 AM - New England Town Records - Unlike much of the rest of the country, towns in New England create a large number of records valuable to genealogists. Discover the variety of materials that can shed light on your ancestors' lives.

11:45 AM to 1:00 PM - Break for lunch

1:00 PM to 2:00 PM – New England Repositories and Key Collections - There are countless repositories of different sizes throughout New England to assist you in your research. Learn about some of these repositories and how to access their holdings from near or far.

2:00 PM to 2:45 PM – Drawings for door prizes and raffles

2:45 PM to 3:45 PM – Sources for New England Research

The six New England states have a different structure from most of the rest of the United States. Understanding those differences and the records it created is important to finding your ancestors in the northeast corner of the U.S.
